SNAPA Annual Conference

JULY 29-31 | LANCASTER, PA

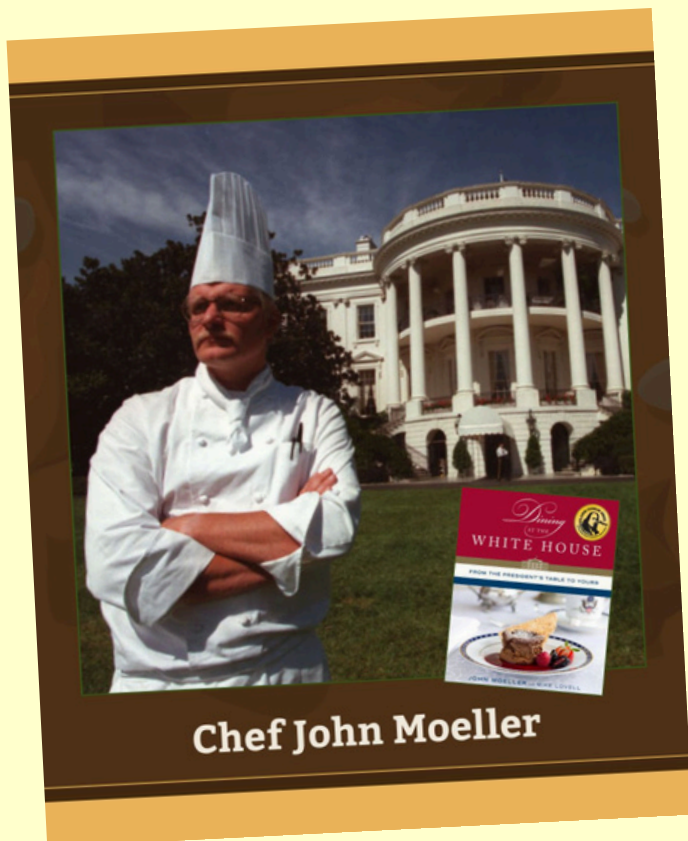

SCHOOL NUTRITION ASSOCIATION OF PENNSYLVANIA

The 2026 SNAPA Annual Conference is shaping up to be an unforgettable experience, and we're excited to announce our featured keynote speaker, Chef John Moeller, for a special session:

A Conversation with Chef John Moeller

From serving meals in the White House to owning a celebrated restaurant right here in Lancaster, Chef John Moeller's career is a remarkable story of dedication, excellence, and passion for food.

During this engaging keynote conversation, attendees will hear firsthand stories from behind the scenes at the White House, gain insight into leadership and service at the highest level, and discover lessons that connect culinary excellence with building strong communities.

EXCLUSIVE TRAINING FROM THE PA DEPT OF EDUCATION

This year's conference offers a unique benefit for districts preparing for an upcoming Procurement Review. The Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE) Bureau of Food and Nutrition will conduct its only in-person Procurement Review training for the 2026-2027 school year.

This important session will provide valuable guidance on review expectations, preparation strategies, required documentation, and opportunities to ask questions directly to PDE staff. Attending can help your team feel more confident and prepared as you approach your review year.

SNA - Watch On-Demand: Smart Swaps in Action

The Smart Swaps in Action webinar is now available on-demand, and it's worth carving out an hour for. This session brings together dairy farmers, school nutrition leaders and partners to share real-world strategies for meeting evolving nutrition standards while keeping meals exciting and student-centered.

Why it matters: Practical, real-world strategies from people doing this work every day. That's what this session delivers.

What's next: Watch at your own pace and earn a CEU while you're at it.
